

Cashflow for Kids

This is a financial literacy game. Players needed to make good decisions with their money or go bankrupt. Decisions such as whether or not to use a credit card, and comparing the cost of a potential investment versus the return. They were also exposed to unexpected financial burdens and windfalls.

Students playing "Cashflow". Lots of decisions to make.